

BLOODBORNE PATHOGENS—GENERAL
Training Program Quiz

OUR RECORDS SHOW YOU ARE DUE FOR BLOOD BORNE PATHOGENS TRAINING. PLEASE READ THE POWER POINT PRESENTATION AND COMPLETE THIS QUIZ THEN RETURN IT TO TERESA SNYDER AT EVERGREEN WOODS. THANK YOU.

NAME: _____ DATE: _____

SIGNATURE: _____ LENGTH: _____ HR.

1. TWO OF THE MOST COMMON BLOODBORNE PATHOGENS (BBPS) ARE HIV AND HBV.

True or  False

2. After exposure to potentially infected bodily fluids, you should immediately wash any exposed areas.

True or  False

3. HIV and HBV can be transmitted when infected bodily fluids directly contact the eyes or non-intact skin.

True or  False

4. Employers must offer the Hepatitis B vaccine at no cost to employees who are potentially exposed to bloodborne pathogens.

True or  False

5. Treating all bodily fluids as though they are infected is known as medical precautions.

True or  False

6. HIV stays alive in dried blood.

True or  False

7. Which of the following tasks would likely not expose you to human blood at your workplace:

- a. Administering first aid
- b. Decontaminating equipment
- c. Doing janitorial work
- d. Writing an accident report

OVER

TRAINING PROGRAM

quiz

BLOODBORNE PATHOGENS—GENERAL
Training Program Quiz

---

8. You should always wear gloves when controlling normal bleeding.
 True or  False
9. In addition to the disinfectant/cleaner provided in first-aid kits, you can use a solution of bleach and water to decontaminate equipment or surfaces.
 True or  False
10. In a general industry facility, absorbed bodily fluids can usually be double-bagged and discarded with the normal garbage.
 True or  False

TRAINING PROGRAM

quiz