

The 31st Maine Child Welfare Education Annual Conference

Children in the Digital Age: Are We Technically Better?

June 25, 2026      Bangor, ME

Certificate of Attendance

Keynote: Children in the Digital Age: Are We Technically Better? (1.5 contact hrs.) _____

Workshops Round 1 (1.5 contact hrs. each)

- A. Digital Media Use & Misuse Among Youth _____
- B. Social Media & Youth Mental Health: A Call to Being Informed _____
- C. Navigating Ethics in a Digital World _____
- D. A Global Landscape: Current Threats and Trends in Online Child Sexual Exploitation _____

Workshops Round 2 (1.5 contact hrs. each)

- E. Digital Connection: Ethical Engagement in Youth Telehealth _____
- F. Hijacked: Digital Dopamine, Escapism, and the Power of Human Connection _____
- G. Cleaning Up the Internet: New Image Takedown Possibilities & Realities through NCMEC _____

OCFS Updates (0.5 contact hr.) _____

Plenary: Crucial Conversations for Today's Families, Schools, and Providers (1.5 contact hrs.) _____

The Maine Board of Overseers of the Bar has approved 6.5 Continuing Legal Education credits, including 1.0 Ethics and Professionalism Credit. The Maine GAL Review Board has approved 6.5 Guardian ad Litem Continuing Professional Education credits, including 1.0 Ethics and Professionalism Credit.

Mark W. Moran, LCSW

Mark W. Moran, LCSW, MCWE Executive Council

Attendees should claim credit for only the sessions they attended-maximum 6.5 contact hrs.

Maine Child Welfare Education